

Williamsville North

North finished 4-8 overall for fifth place in ECIC Division I and heads into this season without would-be captain Mia Symoniak, who moved out of the district to Amherst. She finished in 13th place in Class A at the Section VI Championships last year with a time of 20:55.6.

Eighth grader Emily Cid, who placed 37th at the Section VI Championships, takes over as the team's probable top runner.

Other returning kids are senior captain Kasalina Nabakooza and eighth grader Kim Berus, who were both ran at sectionals last year.

New to the team are junior Grace Heusner, who ran the half mile and 2-mile relay?? for Stang in track and freshman Kaila Reybuck.

The Lady Spartans finished seventh at sectionals last year with a team score of 205.

They began their season Sept. 11 with a 12th place finish (317) at the Byron-Bergen Invitational. They placed eighth in Division I at last week's 15th annual

(Please turn to page 20)